Friday.

My dear Mr. Galtie.

I Am so sorry that every single evening that remains to me during my short stay in town. is filled up with engagements. which will preclude the possibility of my accepting your kind invitation for myself &

Sister. I assure you. I literally have not breathing time. I shall hope to have the pleasure of waiting on you before I leave town. and shall hope to see you at my little home at Bayswater.

I regret to hear of your illness. but hope you are improving in health.

Pray remember me tenderly to your Son & believe me

Dear Madam

Ever most truly
Yours

Charlotte Jackson
