Dear Cousin Monday am.
I had yesterday your
of course I hope the party to ship (passed off well - had have a gentle rain this am,
which is very much needed - A cent or the two cents other cents
improved - Lily, W.C. is coming out quite surprisingly & by the time her mother brings her back from Cuba
will be rather an attractive girl I think - In Wattlekin
was called to N. York
two days ago, and
by sleep of Edge
the Com- merchant of right hand and be telegraphed Saturday might be come out
get well & my thought

which a good deal upsets Mr W. See with regard
See John at New York
as they are so, in substance Nelson is to be here tomorrow & to stay we think we shall call to See Henry go to see him too - Mr Yeaton
is uncertain when he can get off perhaps Friday or Saturday - if he can't go in a week I must give it out -

Mr K. got home Saturday - You heard Ned was in on time & went to Westbury where he met Robt. Akers & later about five May - & no doubt they all had a good time - all well &
all love love
