

Chorley

Chorley's letters

Dear Miss Cushman.

Ma parola (you see I am using My Italian) in answer to your kind note from Drury Water, & to introduce to you ~~the~~ care the M. S. - of my play.
 Save the introduction of one or two words in the great scene between Sin Achibald & Swz, in the fourth Act (so as to make the natural misconception of the nature of his suit more pointed) which will be very easily added - the copy is a perfect one - as I yesterday put the few words between Margaret & Lord Overberry into order. What no stamps

Reading the play might stumble for a moment for want of the connecting link. —

Now as regards a certain theater - My first object is, of course, that you should be throughout supported well in a play you have so kindly adopted for regards, I mean - (more choice of locale.)

At the Pierce's there would be a chance of Wallack in La Roque - giving only the price noble, or filled.
Or perhaps Mr. Buckingham might be tried, or even Mr. W. Saeg. if Mr.
Wallack liked to have Sir Lockhart for himself - ~~to the~~ place would be -

Compton
- so that would be as above
W. divide $ do with most me
Pierce w
No anti
So facile
Horrible
Lady of
Drey no
Ternice

able for an meeting

cate - My or - should

in a ted (as of local)

be a ogue -

or filled -
might

if W.
liberal

will be -

Compton, too, for Lord Pembury?
- so that I don't know - but the latter would have as decent chance there as elsewhere. - What's new brand of W. - - - - - Means we incessantly dislike the idea of having anything do with him: - but, if he will best us fairly - & produce the force worthily - I have written you the Antipathy to make us say they to facilitate matters as much as possible, & to spare you as every Lady ought to be spared, according to my notions) unbroilment or in

- terminate in a business which of getting away.

is the of their profit - I have left Conditions in the hands of Negroes worthy & gentlemanly friends; - W.
Arnould - To which there can be no difficulty in ^{any one's} according - & which while they prevent my either being duped, or doing all the business things by my professionally interested partners - have overruled as
- Modation in my own favor On returning, provided I find the matter - has made any pro- gress during my absence. All the decisions of, in brief, is to cause

Not delay nor hindrance, with a reasonable regard to the protection of My own interests.

And so, Good bye! — If you were blind My scars you would understand what, otherwise I fear almost ~~to~~ abused, — the more the necessity there is, at present of getting away. I am, done, I think & it is rather a bone than a head, which wishes you all health, success, & prosperity ~~While~~ till you see again.

Very truly Y^r.
H. F. Clarke