

is worth

I was at the Opera this morning, till two o'clock will therefore judge of my present charming headache.
 Affairs considerably - but the whole state of public hope is such ^{at that stage} that there is no telling who has been & who is now done. Rosati, ~~she~~ is a very tall looking young girl I increasingly believe that Irving died is not coming: & w not unless she can get back her engagement from Benn. - And now, tis high time to close this interminable letter. As usual

I feel quite knocked up: with a long & work, unorthodox, before me. Situated, I have on very well at the theatre - Now, I can look to hear of you - coming up: I right glad she

I be to have you by the hand again. & to convey you on your great success, of which I read on side. Kindest regards to Mr. Meriman: love from & sentiments of the highest consideration from the both.

Very faithfully W.

Henry F. Chorley.
