Dear Mr. Fields.

I received yours of the 10th, a day or two since. I wrote you on my return from Philadelphia, but you seem not to have received my note. I am waiting for an answer every post.

I will send the corrected copy of "Greenwood Leaves" to day, or tomorrow.

If there's a doubt of a second ed. of the "G. L." being called for, as you imply, I cannot for a moment think of putting out a new volume in the spring. It were best not to bore the public - not to surfeit it on greens.

The "G. L." would sell in the west, could it be supplied - at least so I am assured.

Many who would purchase, are unable to procure copies. -

Yours truly
Lara G. Clarke.
