Dear Aunt - like a fool, I forgot my Shakespeare last night will you please give it to the bearer & will you lend me the Diamond Edition of Howell for Miss Chapman to look at.

Another thing I want to ask of James - Miss Stubbs has been in London on the task of applause at the Theatre. & last evening saw me the enclosed paper to you to James to have put into the Adver-

Admission in Transcript. Will be so that it is done. I think the word ought to be spoken - somebody said something about it in the Evening Gazette yesterday - and a number of these words spoken may rouse the shy, conscious, prudent Scotch Banker to give the use of his two hands to the artist or lecturer.

We had a long Evening last Evening. I was enchanted with South as I always am & have been. & Miss Chapman has completed look her hand to him. I enjoyed my Evening very much & thank you as ever for being there in any & do to me & yours

Love to Annie

Admirer or Transcriber. Will he do that for me. He thinks the word ought to be Spoken - something said something about it in the Emmy Gazette yesterday - and a number of these words spoken may come the shy, concourse, prudent Scotch Garder to give the use of the two hands to the artful or lecturer.

We had a long Emmy last Emmy. I was enchanted with Lord as I always am when two.
Miss Chapman has completed

lost her heart to him. I enjoyed my Emmy very much & thank you as ever for everything you say & do to me - ward

Love to him.
