

Personal Intelligence.

Among the arrivals by the Porsia last week was Miss Charlotte Cushman, the tragedienne, and her friend, Miss Stebbins, the sculptor, sister of H. G. Stebbins, Esq., of New York. A fine bust of Miss Cushman, and two statuettes, ordered by Mr. Hecksher, of this city, executed at Rome last year by Miss Stebbins, will probably be exhibited here shortly. The former is said to be the finest likeness of Miss Cushman that has as yet been executed.

Hon. John B. Haskin, of Fordham, N. Y.; John W. Forney, Esq., of Philadelphia; Major Kendrick and Capt. T. R. Roe, both of West Point, and N. McStay, Esq., and family, of New Orleans, are stopping at the Fifth Avenue Hotel.

Gen. Joseph Lane, of Oregon; W. M. Kerr, Esq., of Harrisburg, and J. L. Watkins, Esq., and family, of Alabama, are stopping at the St. Nicholas Hotel.

Juan Bello, Chilian Minister to the United States, and family; Jules Hanel, Esq., and family, of Philadelphia; E. W. Cobb, Esq., of London, England; R. G. Brown, Esq., and Mrs. N. Brown, both of Rhode Island, are stopping at the Clarendon Hotel.

W. C. Gurry, Esq., and H. R. Smiths, Esq., and party, all of Erie; Mr. J. Collins, of Philadelphia; Captain Crowell, of the steamer Florida; James A. Wilkins, Esq., and lady, and J. W. Mangam, Esq., all of Texas; R. Thompson, Esq., and James Green, Esq., both of Canada, were among the arrivals at the Lafarge House yesterday.

Dr. James Kelum and Dr. Ward, both of the United States Coast Survey, and Mason Trowbridge, Esq., and wife, of Utica, are stopping at the Union Place Hotel.

Capt. R. A. Bennet, and lady, of Baltimore; Rev. H. Brown, of Beverly, N. J.; Dr. G. Relley, and Dr. W. H. Harris, both of Harrisburg, are stopping at the Metropolitan Hotel.

Hon. Preston King, of Ogdensburg; Hon. Eli Thayer, of Massachusetts, and Rufus Choate, of Boston, were among the arrivals at the Astor House yesterday.

The Syrian correspondent of the Boston Traveller sends the following list of Americans travelling in Syria from March 20 to June 1, 1860. Herman J. Warner, Boston; S. D. Phelps, D. D., New Haven, Conn.; Edw. G. Porter, Boston; Rev. J. L. Jenkins, Lowell; Rev. Wm. B. Clark, New Haven, Conn.; Wm. Howe, Boston; Philip Snyder, Albany; Wm. C. Child, Boston; Alex. R. Wiggs, Huntsville, Ala.; Jas. E. Tyler and lady, Louisville, Ky.; Miss Mary E. Foote, Brooklyn, N. Y.; R. B. Welch, Catskill, N. Y.; Henry Gassett, Boston; Revel Smith, New York; Rev. John P. Lundy and lady, Philadelphia; John W. Minrurn, New York; Chas. H. Marshall, Jr., New York; Colonel Loring, Florida; John E. McElroy, Albany, N. Y.; Mr. Field, Philadelphia; John Crosby Brown, New York; S. Whitney Phoenix, New York; Lewis G. Turabull, —; Henry Brewerton, U. S. A., Baltimore; H. F. Brewerton, Baltimore; Wm. B. Weir, Philadelphia; H. H. Porter, New York; Major L. B. Tower, U. S. A., —; Dr. B. Warwick, Richmond, Va.; Mrs. James Scriner Graham and daughters, New York; Mrs. C. B. Nichols; Rev. Mr. Dowdy, New York; Mr. Nickol, New York; Mr. Ward, do.; Dr. T. F. Seelye and lady, Cleveland, Ohio; Mr. J. Seelye, do.; Mr. C. Allen, do.

Personal Intelligence.

The New York Herald (New York, New York, Sunday, July 08, 1860. (550 words)

Category: News

Gale Document Number:GT3003673436