

self.

—A New York letter says: "In the event of the removal of the President, Mr. Seward writes to his friends here, so I am informed, that he will at once leave the Cabinet. In Wall-street Mr. McCulloch's friends are in doubt as to his course in the same contingency, but those of them who sustain the closest business relations with him appear to be pretty confident that he likewise will resign his place. Horace Greeley is confidently spoken of as Mr. Randall's successor in the Postoffice Department.

—A nobby dinner party for twenty was given by a lady in New York Wednesday evening. The cards of invitation were engraved in gold and enclosed in three-cornered envelopes with gilt edges. At dinner, the table cloth was of white velveteen, edged with gilt fringe, and the centre standard, a massive epergne of gold, with small baskets hanging from it, loaded with fruit, fancy boxes, bon bons, etc. A large bouquet of rare flowers was placed near the plate of each guest, from which was suspended the bill of fare, printed in gold letters on white satin ribbon. The waiters were dressed in crimson coats, knee breeches, silk-stockings, and powdered wigs.

—Baltimore has a new line of steamships to Europe, the only one now bearing the American flag, and it feels reasonably jubilant over the fact, as announced by telegraph. The first steamer arrived on its hither trip last week, and the occasion was celebrated by a grand procession, a banquet and great rejoicings. Forty years ago a similar demonstration was made at the inauguration of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, an enterprise which has rendered a thousand miles of territory tributary to the trade of the city, and enhanced the value of property within its limits from $25,000,000 to $212,000,000. The important commercial consequences which must follow the establishment of the Baltimore and Bremen line of steamships are estimated as even greater, in view of the commanding relations of Baltimore with the principal producing and consuming regions of the country, and the popular demonstration was manifestly appropriate in celebration of one of the greatest victories of peace. The trade in tobacco, cotton, rice, etc., between Baltimore and Bremen is very large, having heretofore been carried on by sailing vessels, and the establishment of this line mus

Our European Dispatches. THE GREAT DEBATE ON THE IRELAND CHURCH QUESTION—TUESDAY AND WEDNESDAY—CONTINUED FROM PAGE 1.

London, March 25.—The debate in the Irish House of Commons last night on the resolution for the abolition of the Irish Church was the most important of the present session. Mr. Gladstone (a portion of whose remarks were telegraphed last evening) made a most masterly speech, and the resolutions for the abolition of the Irish Church establishment, placing himself in line with the most advanced members of the liberal party on this question.

The interesting point was not the discussion of the Irish Church, but the fact that the House of Commons, in the past, had shown the necessity for the immediate consideration of the subject, and explained the tendency and effect of the resolutions which had been introduced to meet the emergency. He dilated on the great effect of good which a termination of the ascendancy of the Irish Church, as a State establishment, would have in removing the religious and mitigating sectarian bitterness.

On this question, he said members of Parliament should avoid all party feelings, and act solely for the public good. No one could deny that each of the church organizations, considered, irrespective of creed, aimed to do good; but the church, as an establishment of the State, was miserably failed. To do the country any good, the State must be free from the influence of the church. Now that the period of the religious wars was no longer in force, the number of Protestants in Ireland did not exceed one-fifth of the population, and it was a great injustice to compel the State to support the church for the benefit of so small a minority.

Members of the House of Commons were urged to disregard their fears and prejudices, and when the Irish Church was abolished, the equality of all men should be placed on a basis on the justice of the act. He praised the Roman Catholic clergy for their firmness and loyalty in the past. In regard to measures for the disestablishment of the Irish Church, Mr. Gladstone said he did not intend to press the question to a final decision, but he would support the measure, but he should urge the government to make appointments to fill vacancies in higher grades of the Irish Church, in order to leave the door open for the future. He did not believe that the government was ready to deal fairly with the question he would have resorted to that of the disestablishment of the church, but he hoped that the introduction of these resolutions would be followed by steps to carry them into effect next year, so that perhaps the present generation might see them completed.

After a lengthy and interesting speech, Mr. Gladstone proposed the consideration of the whole subject until the meeting of the next Parliament. Mr. Gladstone closed with an eloquent appeal for the House to support the question and dignity by its course on the important question now to be decided. Mr. Gladstone was loudly cheered.

Mr. Gladstone was loudly cheered. The House should have had the report of the committee which had been made to place the question on a false basis. Mr. Gladstone did not seek to win the issue by trickery in management, as had been charged. They only wanted time to consider the subject before acting. The resolutions were carried by a majority of 110 to 60.

advise state that President. Fiume was killed by a Confederate. Fiume was killed by a Confederate. Fiume was killed by a Confederate. Fiume was killed by a Confederate.

Further South American news. Further South American news. Further South American news. Further South American news.

Strong, the alleged fugitive from Virginia, was released by Judge Fisher, on the ground that Virginia was no State, and subsequently arrested on a warrant from the Sheriff of the District of Columbia. The discharge was shown that the fugitive was a fugitive from justice.

The interesting point was not the discussion of the Irish Church, but the fact that the House of Commons, in the past, had shown the necessity for the immediate consideration of the subject, and explained the tendency and effect of the resolutions which had been introduced to meet the emergency.

On this question, he said members of Parliament should avoid all party feelings, and act solely for the public good. No one could deny that each of the church organizations, considered, irrespective of creed, aimed to do good; but the church, as an establishment of the State, was miserably failed.

Mr. Gladstone was loudly cheered. The House should have had the report of the committee which had been made to place the question on a false basis. Mr. Gladstone did not seek to win the issue by trickery in management, as had been charged.

They only wanted time to consider the subject before acting. The resolutions were carried by a majority of 110 to 60. The House should have had the report of the committee which had been made to place the question on a false basis.

increase and facilitate the business to a great extent. One very creditable feature of the new enterprise is the fact that the most important of the present session.

Further South American news. Further South American news. Further South American news. Further South American news.

Strong, the alleged fugitive from Virginia, was released by Judge Fisher, on the ground that Virginia was no State, and subsequently arrested on a warrant from the Sheriff of the District of Columbia.

The interesting point was not the discussion of the Irish Church, but the fact that the House of Commons, in the past, had shown the necessity for the immediate consideration of the subject.

On this question, he said members of Parliament should avoid all party feelings, and act solely for the public good. No one could deny that each of the church organizations, considered, irrespective of creed, aimed to do good.

Mr. Gladstone was loudly cheered. The House should have had the report of the committee which had been made to place the question on a false basis. Mr. Gladstone did not seek to win the issue by trickery in management.

They only wanted time to consider the subject before acting. The resolutions were carried by a majority of 110 to 60. The House should have had the report of the committee which had been made to place the question on a false basis.

He defended the constitution throughout, and in conclusion, called on the military to preserve order.

Further South American news. Further South American news. Further South American news. Further South American news.

Strong, the alleged fugitive from Virginia, was released by Judge Fisher, on the ground that Virginia was no State, and subsequently arrested on a warrant from the Sheriff of the District of Columbia.

The interesting point was not the discussion of the Irish Church, but the fact that the House of Commons, in the past, had shown the necessity for the immediate consideration of the subject.

On this question, he said members of Parliament should avoid all party feelings, and act solely for the public good. No one could deny that each of the church organizations, considered, irrespective of creed, aimed to do good.

Mr. Gladstone was loudly cheered. The House should have had the report of the committee which had been made to place the question on a false basis. Mr. Gladstone did not seek to win the issue by trickery in management.

They only wanted time to consider the subject before acting. The resolutions were carried by a majority of 110 to 60. The House should have had the report of the committee which had been made to place the question on a false basis.

He defended the constitution throughout, and in conclusion, called on the military to preserve order.

Further South American news. Further South American news. Further South American news. Further South American news.

Strong, the alleged fugitive from Virginia, was released by Judge Fisher, on the ground that Virginia was no State, and subsequently arrested on a warrant from the Sheriff of the District of Columbia.

The interesting point was not the discussion of the Irish Church, but the fact that the House of Commons, in the past, had shown the necessity for the immediate consideration of the subject.

On this question, he said members of Parliament should avoid all party feelings, and act solely for the public good. No one could deny that each of the church organizations, considered, irrespective of creed, aimed to do good.

Mr. Gladstone was loudly cheered. The House should have had the report of the committee which had been made to place the question on a false basis. Mr. Gladstone did not seek to win the issue by trickery in management.

They only wanted time to consider the subject before acting. The resolutions were carried by a majority of 110 to 60. The House should have had the report of the committee which had been made to place the question on a false basis.

He defended the constitution throughout, and in conclusion, called on the military to preserve order.

Further South American news. Further South American news. Further South American news. Further South American news.

Strong, the alleged fugitive from Virginia, was released by Judge Fisher, on the ground that Virginia was no State, and subsequently arrested on a warrant from the Sheriff of the District of Columbia.

The interesting point was not the discussion of the Irish Church, but the fact that the House of Commons, in the past, had shown the necessity for the immediate consideration of the subject.

On this question, he said members of Parliament should avoid all party feelings, and act solely for the public good. No one could deny that each of the church organizations, considered, irrespective of creed, aimed to do good.

Mr. Gladstone was loudly cheered. The House should have had the report of the committee which had been made to place the question on a false basis. Mr. Gladstone did not seek to win the issue by trickery in management.

They only wanted time to consider the subject before acting. The resolutions were carried by a majority of 110 to 60. The House should have had the report of the committee which had been made to place the question on a false basis.

He defended the constitution throughout, and in conclusion, called on the military to preserve order.

Further South American news. Further South American news. Further South American news. Further South American news.

Strong, the alleged fugitive from Virginia, was released by Judge Fisher, on the ground that Virginia was no State, and subsequently arrested on a warrant from the Sheriff of the District of Columbia.

The interesting point was not the discussion of the Irish Church, but the fact that the House of Commons, in the past, had shown the necessity for the immediate consideration of the subject.

On this question, he said members of Parliament should avoid all party feelings, and act solely for the public good. No one could deny that each of the church organizations, considered, irrespective of creed, aimed to do good.

Mr. Gladstone was loudly cheered. The House should have had the report of the committee which had been made to place the question on a false basis. Mr. Gladstone did not seek to win the issue by trickery in management.

They only wanted time to consider the subject before acting. The resolutions were carried by a majority of 110 to 60. The House should have had the report of the committee which had been made to place the question on a false basis.

SOUTH CAROLINA RAILROAD. OFFICIAL. This Company has been authorized to sell for the purpose of raising money to build over the road.

SOUTH CAROLINA RAILROAD. OFFICIAL. This Company has been authorized to sell for the purpose of raising money to build over the road.

SOUTH CAROLINA RAILROAD. OFFICIAL. This Company has been authorized to sell for the purpose of raising money to build over the road.

SOUTH CAROLINA RAILROAD. OFFICIAL. This Company has been authorized to sell for the purpose of raising money to build over the road.

SOUTH CAROLINA RAILROAD. OFFICIAL. This Company has been authorized to sell for the purpose of raising money to build over the road.

SOUTH CAROLINA RAILROAD. OFFICIAL. This Company has been authorized to sell for the purpose of raising money to build over the road.

SOUTH CAROLINA RAILROAD. OFFICIAL. This Company has been authorized to sell for the purpose of raising money to build over the road.

SOUTH CAROLINA RAILROAD. OFFICIAL. This Company has been authorized to sell for the purpose of raising money to build over the road.

SOUTH CAROLINA RAILROAD. OFFICIAL. This Company has been authorized to sell for the purpose of raising money to build over the road.

SOUTH CAROLINA RAILROAD. OFFICIAL. This Company has been authorized to sell for the purpose of raising money to build over the road.

NEWS SUMMARY.

A political dinner-dinner at Tusculum, Md., last night. Robert Cunningham, late of the Confederate Army, and Mr. O'Connell, the Union man, resulted in the death of the former, who was slain by O'Connell.

The meeting advertised on last Friday came off at 10 o'clock, and drew the greater part of the day to the residence of Mr. O'Connell, late of the Confederate Army, and Mr. Cunningham, the Union man, resulted in the death of the former, who was slain by O'Connell.

The meeting advertised on last Friday came off at 10 o'clock, and drew the greater part of the day to the residence of Mr. O'Connell, late of the Confederate Army, and Mr. Cunningham, the Union man, resulted in the death of the former, who was slain by O'Connell.

The meeting advertised on last Friday came off at 10 o'clock, and drew the greater part of the day to the residence of Mr. O'Connell, late of the Confederate Army, and Mr. Cunningham, the Union man, resulted in the death of the former, who was slain by O'Connell.

The meeting advertised on last Friday came off at 10 o'clock, and drew the greater part of the day to the residence of Mr. O'Connell, late of the Confederate Army, and Mr. Cunningham, the Union man, resulted in the death of the former, who was slain by O'Connell.

The meeting advertised on last Friday came off at 10 o'clock, and drew the greater part of the day to the residence of Mr. O'Connell, late of the Confederate Army, and Mr. Cunningham, the Union man, resulted in the death of the former, who was slain by O'Connell.

REPORTS.

Our correspondent, Q. E. D., sends the following interesting report of a Radical mass meeting held at Blackville on Thursday last.

The meeting advertised on last Friday came off at 10 o'clock, and drew the greater part of the day to the residence of Mr. O'Connell, late of the Confederate Army, and Mr. Cunningham, the Union man, resulted in the death of the former, who was slain by O'Connell.

The meeting advertised on last Friday came off at 10 o'clock, and drew the greater part of the day to the residence of Mr. O'Connell, late of the Confederate Army, and Mr. Cunningham, the Union man, resulted in the death of the former, who was slain by O'Connell.

The meeting advertised on last Friday came off at 10 o'clock, and drew the greater part of the day to the residence of Mr. O'Connell, late of the Confederate Army, and Mr. Cunningham, the Union man, resulted in the death of the former, who was slain by O'Connell.

The meeting advertised on last Friday came off at 10 o'clock, and drew the greater part of the day to the residence of Mr. O'Connell, late of the Confederate Army, and Mr. Cunningham, the Union man, resulted in the death of the former, who was slain by O'Connell.

The meeting advertised on last Friday came off at 10 o'clock, and drew the greater part of the day to the residence of Mr. O'Connell, late of the Confederate Army, and Mr. Cunningham, the Union man, resulted in the death of the former, who was slain by O'Connell.

REPORTS.

Our correspondent, Q. E. D., sends the following interesting report of a Radical mass meeting held at Blackville on Thursday last.

The meeting advertised on last Friday came off at 10 o'clock, and drew the greater part of the day to the residence of Mr. O'Connell, late of the Confederate Army, and Mr. Cunningham, the Union man, resulted in the death of the former, who was slain by O'Connell.

The meeting advertised on last Friday came off at 10 o'clock, and drew the greater part of the day to the residence of Mr. O'Connell, late of the Confederate Army, and Mr. Cunningham, the Union man, resulted in the death of the former, who was slain by O'Connell.

The meeting advertised on last Friday came off at 10 o'clock, and drew the greater part of the day to the residence of Mr. O'Connell, late of the Confederate Army, and Mr. Cunningham, the Union man, resulted in the death of the former, who was slain by O'Connell.

The meeting advertised on last Friday came off at 10 o'clock, and drew the greater part of the day to the residence of Mr. O'Connell, late of the Confederate Army, and Mr. Cunningham, the Union man, resulted in the death of the former, who was slain by O'Connell.

The meeting advertised on last Friday came off at 10 o'clock, and drew the greater part of the day to the residence of Mr. O'Connell, late of the Confederate Army, and Mr. Cunningham, the Union man, resulted in the death of the former, who was slain by O'Connell.

REPORTS.

Our correspondent, Q. E. D., sends the following interesting report of a Radical mass meeting held at Blackville on Thursday last.

The meeting advertised on last Friday came off at 10 o'clock, and drew the greater part of the day to the residence of Mr. O'Connell, late of the Confederate Army, and Mr. Cunningham, the Union man, resulted in the death of the former, who was slain by O'Connell.

The meeting advertised on last Friday came off at 10 o'clock, and drew the greater part of the day to the residence of Mr. O'Connell, late of the Confederate Army, and Mr. Cunningham, the Union man, resulted in the death of the former, who was slain by O'Connell.

The meeting advertised on last Friday came off at 10 o'clock, and drew the greater part of the day to the residence of Mr. O'Connell, late of the Confederate Army, and Mr. Cunningham, the Union man, resulted in the death of the former, who was slain by O'Connell.

The meeting advertised on last Friday came off at 10 o'clock, and drew the greater part of the day to the residence of Mr. O'Connell, late of the Confederate Army, and Mr. Cunningham, the Union man, resulted in the death of the former, who was slain by O'Connell.

The meeting advertised on last Friday came off at 10 o'clock, and drew the greater part of the day to the residence of Mr. O'Connell, late of the Confederate Army, and Mr. Cunningham, the Union man, resulted in the death of the former, who was slain by O'Connell.

REPORTS.

Our correspondent, Q. E. D., sends the following interesting report of a Radical mass meeting held at Blackville on Thursday last.

The meeting advertised on last Friday came off at 10 o'clock, and drew the greater part of the day to the residence of Mr. O'Connell, late of the Confederate Army, and Mr. Cunningham, the Union man, resulted in the death of the former, who was slain by O'Connell.

The meeting advertised on last Friday came off at 10 o'clock, and drew the greater part of the day to the residence of Mr. O'Connell, late of the Confederate Army, and Mr. Cunningham, the Union man, resulted in the death of the former, who was slain by O'Connell.

The meeting advertised on last Friday came off at 10 o'clock, and drew the greater part of the day to the residence of Mr. O'Connell, late of the Confederate Army, and Mr. Cunningham, the Union man, resulted in the death of the former, who was slain by O'Connell.

The meeting advertised on last Friday came off at 10 o'clock, and drew the greater part of the day to the residence of Mr. O'Connell, late of the Confederate Army, and Mr. Cunningham, the Union man, resulted in the death of the former, who was slain by O'Connell.

The meeting advertised on last Friday came off at 10 o'clock, and drew the greater part of the day to the residence of Mr. O'Connell, late of the Confederate Army, and Mr. Cunningham, the Union man, resulted in the death of the former, who was slain by O'Connell.

REPORTS.

Our correspondent, Q. E. D., sends the following interesting report of a Radical mass meeting held at Blackville on Thursday last.

The meeting advertised on last Friday came off at 10 o'clock, and drew the greater part of the day to the residence of Mr. O'Connell, late of the Confederate Army, and Mr. Cunningham, the Union man, resulted in the death of the former, who was slain by O'Connell.

The meeting advertised on last Friday came off at 10 o'clock, and drew the greater part of the day to the residence of Mr. O'Connell, late of the Confederate Army, and Mr. Cunningham, the Union man, resulted in the death of the former, who was slain by O'Connell.

The meeting advertised on last Friday came off at 10 o'clock, and drew the greater part of the day to the residence of Mr. O'Connell, late of the Confederate Army, and Mr. Cunningham, the Union man, resulted in the death of the former, who was slain by O'Connell.

The meeting advertised on last Friday came off at 10 o'clock, and drew the greater part of the day to the residence of Mr. O'Connell, late of the Confederate Army, and Mr. Cunningham, the Union man, resulted in the death of the former, who was slain by O'Connell.

The meeting advertised on last Friday came off at 10 o'clock, and drew the greater part of the day to the residence of Mr. O'Connell, late of the Confederate Army, and Mr. Cunningham, the Union man, resulted in the death of the former, who was slain by O'Connell.

FREE PRESS OFFICE,

NO. 68 MEETING STREET.

CHARLESTON, S. C., MARCH 30, 1868.

SIR :

The enemies of Republicanism are organizing their forces all over our State. They will leave no stone unturned to find means to overthrow our party. They will not only attempt to prevent the ratification of the new Constitution, but will endeavor to vilify and abuse our candidates in every way likely to secure their defeat. In this condition, it becomes us to be up and doing. Organize in every locality ; bring out every vote ; let no obstacle deter any Republican, from casting a ballot in favor of the Constitution, Justice and Equal Rights.

That we may do all the good in our power, we desire to have prompt information of the names of all candidates for public positions, put in nomination by the Republican party, with as much information as to their characters and previous history as can be furnished. Your intimate acquaintance with the political status of your community, will enable you to give this information, with accounts of public meetings of Republicans or their opponents, in your vicinity. If you will forward to this office intelligence upon these points you will be doing a service, as it will enable us to see where particular efforts need to be made, and probably, to set in motion, influences which may be valuable in assisting those who need assistance in this important crisis.

Your communications shall be held in strict confidence.

Respectfully Yours,

TIMOTHY HURLEY.