

Dearest Charlotte - I have done I think all you left for me to do - I wish it had been as much more - I have paid a sovereign & six pence above all you left for me to make myself straight with Frank I called for the gloves & she made them up - but on looking just now I only find 3 I will call as I go home - I am in awful spirits - the house is dismal Da Neve to mend the matter I have had an awful sitting - he is wonderfully vexed at me & I can do nothing right I do my besting love me as long as you can pay much as you can for I am superstitious about my friends & if I lose one it wd be a heaking of the magic ring - I feel as if I had not spoken a truth part of all I have to say but one must take one's friends by mouthfuls & never expect to get one's appetite staid so I am looking out for you & E. Cooke it will be a great comfort & see you again tell Susan with my love she shall have the rest of Marie's soon - Take care of yourself & let me hear that you are better than when you left us - Love me I believe that I love you a great deal more

The spring of the parasol wants mending but they had not another like it - so they made an allowance of 1/6 for you to get it done
