Friday.

Oh what a lovely day. & how sadly we lean on you. we have been made so happy through your kindness that we hate to go. I only think now of the 15th - our hearts we lean on your hands. at least I speak for two of us! Your own flirtations with Mrs Stobbs must find their own response our feelings have been "kind o' narrowed" Mrs. -

Dear J. F. P. Enclosed please find notes to Mr Butts & Gills - if they are an now what you like - with you I am yours to me at Lenox. any Min before Monday morning next when we leave for New York.

(No 20. West 16th St). Tell me what I can write better & I will do it. Let me hear a line from one of you. if you see any thing of Mr. Sub. if you cannot do any thing with him - do you know Mr. Gardner Brewer - who would do equally well. My great object is to get Mr. C. at something in Boston Min. Crow much chosen Boston & so do I. therefore if you can help me in the matter, will you. If with them, ^{nothing} else can be done, can't you make him, a bookseller of your school." & do you me even a private happiness than the other would, for thus he would be being educated intellectually, & making Emma Crow a more satisfactory companion - will you think of this & let me know your mind.

Ever please you from all to all

Ever your aff

Wm. W. Weston
