FEDUI amin leporter,

FONTAINE BROS., Editors and Publishers.

Devoted to Politics, Agriculture, News, Local Information, and the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge,

VOL XXVI

GRAND RAPIDS, WIS., THURSDAY, JANUARY 11, 1883.

REFORMS, both public and private, can advantageously be inagurated with the incoming of the new year.

THE River Raine region in the vicinty of Worms is disastrsously flooded the dykes having given away.

SEVERAL Washington detectives have been bounced for collusion with thieves and burglars. Probably these were the best associates they had.

A disastrous rate war is raging betweed Chicago and Elgin. Passengers may get a cheap rate one way and dereat the collection of the regular return rate by walking back.

CHICAGO is a very good town to steen bullets. clear of. Murders and robbery are of alarmingly frequent occurrence, and country are earnestly considering the there appears to be a most promising propriety of making a $25,000,000 confield for vigilance committee opera- Brazil.

virtually surrendered to the Canadian mounted police and sworn allegianc to over one hundred loaded cartridges, was for the last two years, raiding the ranchmen on either side of the line with refreshing impartiality, according to the dictates of his own sweet will collars.

David Rencounter, interpreter at the Brule agency, has taken-fourteen braves to the federal court at Yankton, to serve as witnesses against timber thieves and liquor sellers.

David Rencounter, interpreter at the Brule agency, has taken-fourteen braves to the federal court at Yankton, to serve as witnesses against timber thieves and liquor sellers.

David Rencounter, interpreter at the Brule agency, has taken-fourteen braves to the federal court at Yankton, to serve as witnesses against timber thieves and liquor sellers.

In a cave two miles from Lancaster gressional investigation or inqury as to ger, were down town. He also gave Col Irwin of the mounted police and Ghio, was found a notorious sneak-thief, treaty with Big Bear, under the stipu- of weapon lars' tools. lations which he and his people agree ENGLAND has sent four great attrac- finds no trace of insanity. tions to this country during the last year. These are Oscar Wilde, Jumbo, Tug Wilson and Mrs. Langtry. The band, Benjamin Swigert, at Marysville, elephant came to stay; the prize-fighter Mo., and a stranger, and having strangled her daughter at Rulo, Nebraska, besoon returned to his own; the professides making three attempts to kill her sional beauty is still with us, but the present husband, Jay V. Stillwell. sesthete sailed Wednesday for home. The Illinois poard of neatth has the state thirty-one persons who which curiosity has poured into his pockets. But as he jingles his coin on his homeward trip he will probably diploma.

Lambrecht, who butchered a mother and her unborn babe at Collinsville. He personated Dr. Henry A. Luders, from Gottingen, now dead, and presented his diploma. undertake to settle the quettion as to which is reall the greater fool, he or the gullible public, which, while laughing at him, paid its money to see and hear him. It will long remain an unsolved problem.

THE Black Hills Placer Mine, William Dowd trustee, was sold at auc- over half a century, died last month at tion in New York Wednesday Hilo. to the only bidder, Marcus Walker, of Brooklyn, for $5. Shaler, was formed with a capital of - $1,000,000, of which $250,000 was paid lie is a pledge of peace, considers the up. The claim was found by Captain death of Gambetta, who was its warm I. M. West, who was made superinknown beauty and lived with her on a Dufferin, escorted by British troops. cale of principly magnificence, having unlimited credit. Finally the lives have been lost by the floods along stockholders began to be inquisitive, foundations of the fortifications of Mar. and the Captain and his wife suddenly ence. Troops have been stationed at the disappeared, having appropriated to descried villages to stop plundering. The his own use upward of $75,000, besides Danube has inundated Pressburg, and the Paris and Lyons railway was badly inleaving a cart-load of debts which jured. were cleared by mortgaging the THE floods in Germany and Austria are property. It was then learned that creating great havoc. More than 300 houses have been wrecked at Badenheim, the mine was not a bonanza, that Rexheim, Morsch, and Oppau. At Rob-West had left a wife and family des- stadt and Frisenheim the reofs of the titute in Denver, and that things were houses have disappeared, and Mannheim generally unsatisfactory. The foreclosure was therefore decided on.

an important contribution to the hisan important contribution to the his-tory of the rebellion in his great speech ball in his stomach. The coctors disrecently in the Fitz John Porter case. covered that the abscess i d burst in-The Washington correspondent of the later he revived sufficiently to thank his al Logan made a contribution history to-day which may of the authors to revise . Illustrating the maxim orders, he said that the great battle of on New Years, by a collision with a Atlanta, on which so much depended, coupe, but escaped without injury. was fought and won by Union Gener als who did not receive a single order ture store of Rosenbaum & Ties at Pine Bluff, Arkansas, swept onward until propfrom their commanding officer. Gen- erty valued at $125,000 was destroyed. eral Logan did not refer to himself, The passenger-car shops of the Baltibut all military men in the room knew more and Ohio road, at Mount Clare, filled with coaches, were swept away at that it was his own experience that he midnight Thursday, causing heavy loss. had in mind. He added that from the L. W. Johnson, a well-known stock ranked, never received an order from A TRAIN with one hundred passengers Sherman. General Logan thus, on the cury 25 to 28 below zero. floor of the Scnate, has declared that the battle of Atlanta was fought with-out any orders from General Sherman. by 25 ladies of high social standing, and which was one of the most brilliant in the He referred to the fact that Sherman which was one of the most brilliant in the history of the national capitol, was sud-shall fall on St. George's Day and Easin his "Memoirs" has said that every dealy closed by the death by heart pisease ter on St. Mark's. These coincidences, order was anticipated. The truth is, therefore, according to General Lagan's had just presented the members of the lestatement, that the battle of Atlanta, gations to the chief magistrate. for which General Sherman received St. Mary's provincial school, at Knoxso much credit, was fought to a conclusion without any suggestion or diate 2 o'clock Saturday morning and was

TELEGRAPHIC.

News by Wire Reduced to Close Quarters for Convenient Reference and Easy Reading.

BLUFORD SMITH, a colored man who killed Charles Kenser, was taken from jail on Wednesday night at Tazewell court-house, Virginia, and riddled with

THE leading rubber factories of the olidation, to handle the entire crop of Big Bear, the disturbing element of Tabor was given a divorce from the lieuboth sides of the British border, has tenant governor, on the grounds of desertion, with $250,000 alimony.

A PACKAGE from Arizona, containing the queen. This raiding redskin has been the Sitting Bull of the northwes postoffice, Saturday.

Commissioner Dewdney negotiated the treaty with Big Bear under the stinu-MRS. STILLWELL, the Ohio fierd, now to cease their depredations and be peaceful if not decent members of civiwa, Iowa. A reputable physician has made a careful investigation of the men-

Unceasingly the butt of ridicule and falsely made oath that they were gradulaughed at every turn, he har nothing ates of foreign medical universities. The as the result of his trip but the shekels Lambrecht, who butchered a mother and

FOREIGN.

VISCOUNT ENFIELD has resigned the under secretaryship of state for India. THE central tower of the ancient cathedral at Petersborough, England, is to be emolished because of gaps in the walls.

REV. TITUS COAN, who has done missionary work in the Sandwich islands for BIGGAR, of the British parliament, has been held to bail in Ireland for treasonable sentiments in a recent aneech. Three years ago the mine was thought | A PARTY of bailiffs, who were attacked to be very rich, and a company, at by peasants at Upper Cross, County Tipthe head of which was G.n. Alexander one man. Five arrests were made. BISMARCK, believing the French repubsupporter, to be a political loss. A PROCESSION of pilgrims returning tendent. He fell in love with an un- from Mecca, passed in review at Cairo Saturday, before the khedive and Lord

THE Rhine has begun to fall. Sixty foundations of the fortifications at May-appears to stand in the middle of a vast Thousands have been driven from their homes, and starvation is imminent.

LEON GAMBETTA, the great liberal and It seems that Senator Logan made night. His death creates world-wide sor-Tribune gives this report of what he friends for their attention. A stream of death chamber all New Year's day.

FIRES AND CASUALTIES

SEVEN stores and a dwelling at Maniscon, that it is the duty of corps tee, Michigan, valued at $55.000 were anders to march to the sound of swept away by fire on Monday night. MRS. J. G. BLAINE and her son were he enemy's guns without waiting for thrown from a carriage in Washington,

FLAMES which broke out in the furni-their general officer, who was General on board was blockaded at Larimore, Da-

THE New Year reception at the white rection from General Sherman himself.

There were sixty scholars and twelve tar on a red and white striped self.

Patti with the order of Kapic tar on a red and white striped tar on a red and white striped self.

reached the ground by means of ladders. Miss Gillette, of Buffalo, had a leg broken, and Miss Hosford, of Dubuque, was injured by a fall. All wearing apparel and books were burned.

WASHINGTON.

Posto ffices established: Rogers, Ramsy County, D. T. Postmasters commissioned: William Johnson, West Bend, Wis; R. H. Bogers, Rogers D. T. It is probably the senate that will pass the bill reported from the judiciary com-mittee to cancel grants of land to railroad companies which have made little effort to complete their tracks within the time specified. A BANQUET was given at Washington Wednesday night, Senator Bruce presid-ing, in honor of Frederick Douglass and the anniversary of the emancipation proclamation. The anniversary was generally celebrated by the colored people in the THE President is said to be much de-

Minister on their arrival Tuesday. SENATE confirmations-United States Attorney Andrew W. Brazee, for the District of Colorado; Joel B. Erhardt, United States Marshall for the Southern could be obtained to their knocks. District of New York. Postmasters—George E. Beed, at River Falls, Wis; Ernest H. Wilson, Ashland, Wis.

MR. RUFUS HATCH and the gentleman the right of the secretary of the interior the information that a receiver had Speing like weather prevailed at he was appointed, nor would he Washington New Year's day, and the send for him. A representausual New Year's ceremonies were fully enjoyed. The reception at the white being in excellent health, while the deco- mitance, but he was not allowed to tal condition of the dying woman, and finds no trace of insanity.

The sudden death of Mr. Allen, the Hawaiian minister, while waiting to be presented to President Arthur, cast a

GENERAL NOTES.

gloom ouer the festivities.

GEN. JOSEPH WHEELER has been elected to congress from the Eighth Alabama district, over McClellan, by 2,000 ma-

JANE WHITE, a Boston negress, has sued D. L. Safford, a plain citizen, for $500 for breach of promise of marriage. ROBERT BONNER has finished the inspection of the horse-breeding farms in Kentucky. He very much desires to purchase Jay Eye See, but is unwilling to pay $20,000 for him.

A VAST corcourse witnessed the inauguration of Grover Cleveland as governor of New York, New Year's day, after which Louis roads.

Well-known capitalists have subscribed $5,000,000 to build a railway from England road connection with the me-

It is rumored in Montreal that Charles Horne will devote his time to the construction of the track. In a church at Des Moines last Surfrom visiting the agencies, and gave Secretary Kirkwood credit for giving all denominations free access to the savages.

SEVERAL companies of union volunteers from Rhode Island were mustered out last month, and an officer of the command ment was similarly treated at the close of the late unpleasantness.

Gov. Butler, of Massachusetts, in his railway train.

The Sister's Omaha Record.

OMAHA, Nebr., Dec. 2.—Sister Mary Paul, the heroine in the sensational secret marriage with Dr. Ross at: Yankliberator of France, died on New Year's ton, was formerly a resident of Omaha. She was a Sister of Mercy, and second in charge of St. Mary's convent in this city for several years, and is known to a large number of citizens, particularly Catholics, and to young people and children, who have received instructions from her while attending school at the leading republicans flowed through the convent. She is said to be about thirty-five years old, and all that has been said of her in previous dispatches is true, as she is beautiful. intelligent and fascinating, and possessed of great energy. She has done much by her efforts toward raising the debt on the convent at Yankton, to which city she and some other sisters moved about two years ago. Her action causes considerable comment among her Catholic acquaintances in Omaha.

The Tall Sycamore of the Wabash.

The special correspondent of the Indianapolis (Ind.) Journal, embodied in a recent communication the following from Hon Daniel W. Voorhees: I consider St. Jacobs Oil a splendid remedy. I suffered from an affection of the back and kidneys,

A Rival to Mother Shipton.

Mother Shipton's prophecy having failed of fulfilment, somebody in this prediction depends mainly on the arrival or non-arrival of Wiggins' March storm.

Miss Kate Field's Enterprise Comes to an Untimely End.

by the Attachment of Creditors.

Not a little astonishment is caused by the announcement that the co-operaressed by the melancholy event at the tive dress association was in financial opening of the white heuse for the new year. He sent personal expressions of sympathy to the children of the deceased passers-by was attracted by a notice on but no explanation accompanied it. could be obtained to their knocks. Many of the interested then repaired been appointed, but he would not tell his name, nor at whose instance tive of Messrs. Arnold, Constable & Co.. use was a great event, the president who own the building, demanded adenter. A number of stockholders also the penalty for attempting to wreck a lieved in short advertisements. One of father. The mother had died a few girls may think and act for themselves. placed by uncontrolable circumstances. the leading officers was sure that if the years before of grief. order bureau had been worked up properly in the beginning the failure would not have occurred. A director who did not wish his name used, said that dull business and too small capital were the chief causes of failure. The down on co operation generally.

Schulhoff, of New York,

MISS FIELD'S STATEMENT. despotism. HISTORY OF THE ASSOCIATION.

with a capital stock of $250,000, in a constant regret. shares of $25 each, the incorporators many other prominent citizens.

ment is Swndled.

Pioneer Press.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 4.—"The "busi-Plumb this evening, "is managed almost exclusively by the clerical force.

The Association Driven to the Wall of the Wall of the amount to $12 a barrel. The list is short, and to each the mind written by a friend of Miss Cushman's, But the agent was wiser than the com- appends concluded, and not to be conmissioner. He only delivered it nomilitinued. They left no unfinished task nally, knowing that he could buy all or work.
he wanted in Salt Lake city at $4.50. It would be an ungrateful oversight, He was next told to deliver it to the a disreipect to the memory of him after many years of absence. It fol-White River Utes, whose reservation is whose name she bore, not to mention lowed the English period of her career

A SAD DESCENT.

Washington."

The Mysterious Disappearance of a Young Lady of New York-Her Re-

ue, went out in a carriage, ostensibly ited. on a shopping expedition. At Stewappeared and sought admission, but art's store she left the carriage, and her ward learned that Judge Pratt, of the until finally, becoming anxious, he menced by Mr. Edward H. Cole a to discover her, there was no trace. Ten years passed, and the detective yet dangerous profession.

The grant of Brooklyn, to close the to discover her, there was no trace. The years passed, and the detective yet dangerous profession. business. It is alleged by Cole that the association is a failure and insolfaithfully and anxiously rose by defaithfully rose by defai creditor stated that on Saturday the four or five of his officers entered the Colonel Thomas McKissock, the old- ment. Miss Kate Field, it is alleged, about 30, and he saw that she had ing for themselves." whom were practical dry goods people. There was, however, an air of refine-He thought the stock would be closed ment about the woman that attracted and independent in her actions. New York to Hartford, to afford the New out for the benefit of creditors and the police captain, and he eyed her stockholders. It was learned at the curiously while the sergeant recorded Sheriff's office that an execution had the names of the prisoners. Suddenly doll's heads ruthlessly cracked open to been received there on a judgment for the woman beckoned to him. "Cap-J. Brydges, who has returned from Eu- $300, obtained in favor of Mr. R. J. tain do you know me?" was her ques- was possessed with the idea that doll's rope, is to be general manager of the Canadian Pacific railway, while Mr. Van obtained in favor of a Mr. Phillip find Miss Grace—?" "Yes." "Well, for making doll's clothes, but their fur-I'm her. I ran away just out of pure It was said that the reason that the deviltry, and I've had my full share of do anything with tools."

The Death Roll of the Year. Inter-Ocean.

In surveying the necrology of 1882 employes were quite blue and were one finds many an illustrious name, in the top of the tallest tree when af-Miss Field was found at her hotel. leved names in the list are Henry W. and clothes, tyrannical to brothers and of them! And this, though worn out She said that her lawyer has forbidden Longfellow, Ralph Waldo Emerson sixter, but very social and a great fa- and stale as a proverb, comes upon me her to make statements or to be inter- and Charles Darwin. They were re- vorite with other children. Imitation with full force at this time. viewed, but she would say that the vered on both sides of the Atlantic. was a prevailing trait." Referring desponding, I repent that I have left statement that she had received an ex- Each did some most excellent work orbitant salary was false, and that she during the year which has just passed, had worked hard, but now dull busi-ness and creditors caused a suspension. comes at last to us all. They live in She gave $15,000 of her own private the literature of the English language, cash to help to close up the business and will continue to do so long after and show her devotion to the enter- all that now is has crumbled to dust. afraid I was what the French call this lingaring doubt which at last may prise that she had embarked in. She When they laid down the burden of did not think that co-operation would breath no one could feel that a great an awful child; full of irresistible life work unless managed with judicious opportunity had slipped by forever, as and impulsive will; living fully in the when a great career is suddenly arrested midway. There is a sense of satis-The Co-operative a Dress Association | faction in the contemplation of a full-(limited) was incorported May 4, 1881, orbed life, with a premature ending is

The most untimely ending of the being Messrs. Isaac H. Bailey, J. A. year was the sudden death of that Drake, T. B. Musgrave, J. A. Jameson, brilliant genius of Russia, Skobeleff. E. C. Stedman and R. Blanchard. He was only 40 years of age, and had with some rheumatism—in fact, it was make the was rheumatism of the back. I used St. Jathe scheme, and became president. dier. Perhaps he would have risen no beginning to the end of that battle the corps commanders, all of whom he corps commanders, all of whom he worth by drowning.

The dark. I used St. Jattle scheme, and became the scale of fame than that; cobs Oil, and found it very efficacious. It gave me instantaneous relief, and finally tion were:—Senator H. B. Anthony but he had come to be regarded as at cured me completely. president and Mrs. F. A. P. Barnard, least a great possibility. With his loss Columbia College; Mrs. James Barrow, the night of Russia was left starless. He George R. Blanchard, Miss Mary L. alone excited hope for that unhappy Booth, Lawrence Barrett, Edwin Booth, country- Russia is a bewildered wan-Erastus Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. John derer lost in the woods, without a com-Bigelow, Mrs. Jeremiah Black, and pass, turned around and going about in a circle. However he might have perverted his talents, Skobeleff could hardly have made matters worse, and per-Pictured by Plumb-How the Govern- haps his daring genius would have risen to the heighth of his country's needs. But all speculation is at an end. The star fell and the sky of Rusness of the government," said Senator Plumb this evening. "is managed all black as Erebus.

> King Kalakaua, having invested Patti with the order of Kapiolaui—a tar on a red and white striped ribbon—she is now Sir Adelina Patti.
>
> Monog the secondary names in the genius for many other pursuits. When list there is no lack of venerable men, a girl, she "could do anything with the red and settle all questions that may arise in the adjudication of claims. A affairs of their days, but not one heart! Perhaps there are other things affairs of their days, but not one heart! Perhaps there are other things have another talk before he leaves for home. Among the secondary names in the genius for many other pursuits. When truth, I admit, that it would be im- of the vital precept. Chief among With capacity and will girls may, by possible during the brief term of office to familiarize himself with the details of the department, even if he did nothing else. For this reason I say the departments are practically run a man who would have been a great by clerks. Thus their suggestions are statesman had he not been the Pum- feat the end of existence which is the too often acted upon without proper boldt of America; Dr. Edward sey, complete development of all our powinquiry into the merits of the case. the great apostle of high chur aism or ers. One illustration, I think, will clearly demonstrate. An Indian agent in Kansas recently contracted with Commissioner Price to deliver 2,000 barrels of flour at the Los Pinos (Colorado) agency for $8.80 a barrel. Before the time arrived the contractor, was told.

One illustration, I think, will clearly demonstrate. An Indian agent in Kansas recently contracted with Commissioner Price to deliver 2,000 barrels of flour at the Los Pinos (Colorado) agency for $8.80 a barrel. Before the time arrived the contractor, was told.

One illustration, I think, will clearly tractarianism in England; Anthony Trollope, the English novelist; Prof. John W. Draper, scientist and author; Dante Rossetti, the gifted poet and artist, rendered prematurely old by self-indulgence, and the Rev. Henry and the stage, since Charlotte Cushman and the stage since Charlotte Cus time arrived the contractor was told W. Bellows, a clergyman whose name and other heroic souls have so honto deliver the produce at Salt Lake, should be held in greatful rememored the profession of the drama.

of lhe dead year.

Charlotte Cushman, the Actress. Ella A. Giles, in the Milwaukee Evening Wis-

morseful End.

The New York correspondent of the Baltimore American tells this story of a sad descent: Fifteen years ago the acter?" is a question that rises in the ter, and perhaps one or two of our daughter of a rich and prosperous mind of one whose talents are medie neighbors made up the audience to our man, living in fine style on Fifth aven- cre and opportunities for culture lim- first representation of Bluebeard, in they were also refused. It was after- coachman waited for over two hours, Charlotte Cushman, who did not allow the mind to dare and do at that early herself to be crushed by circumstances. Kings County Supreme Court, has yes- made inquiries. The young lady had To have surmounted such obstacles as terday appointed Mr. F. H. Smith redisappeared, and though a great deal of beset her path is to have become a eeiver, an action having been commoney was spent and much effort made beacon, lighting the steps of the weary know that she had a sweet, generous vent. The receiver is required to furnish bonds in the sum of $50,000. A One cold night, just after Christmas,

The reminiscences of Charlotte Cashassociation claimed to have a good sur-station with eight or ten intoxicated man's earliest days in Boston open and to whom she wrote: association claimed to have a good surplus of $125,000, and a few days previous they made a statement to another house that they owed $90,000 for merchandise.

| Many claimed to have a good surplus of $125,000, and a few days previous they made a statement to another women in their custody. One or two were crying over their arrest and the prospect of a prison; others were fierce in their oaths at the interference claimed to have a good surplus of $125,000, and a few days previous they made a statement to another women in their custody. One or two were crying over their arrest and the prospect of a prison; others were fierce in their oaths at the interference claimed to have a good surplus of $125,000, and a few days previous they made a statement to another women in their custody. One or two were crying over their arrest and the prospect of a prison; others were fierce in their oaths at the interference claimed to have a good surplus of $125,000, and a few days previous they made a statement to another women in their custody. One or two were crying over their arrest and the prospect of a prison; others were fierce in their oaths at the interference claim.

| Many claimed to have a good surplus of $125,000, and a few days previous they made a statement to another women in their custody. One or two were crying over their arrest and the prospect of a prison; others were friend Emma Stebbins, in "Charlotte Cushman, Her Letters and Memories of Her Lite") explains the epithet by inevitable result of trying to run a little apart from the group of prisoners plied to all little girls who showed the a public reception was held at the capitol. business without practical manage the captain noticed a tall woman of least tendency toward thinking and act-

and other heavy salaries, none of cheek and a black welt under one eye. strong, free nature of one who was in "My earliest recollections," she continued in her memoranda, "are of see what they were thinking about. I niture I could make skillfully. I could establishment did not close last week it." "Good heavens! Why did you To acknowledge that the needle is day, Bishep O'Connor denounced the at the time the Board of Directors de- do it?' "Ob, I don't know. The po- not a favorite implement, requires less to grasp the true and the beautiful and special lines of goods. Mr. Randall the secretary, declined to be interviewed, while Mr. Lyman said that he viewed, while Mr. Lyman said that he not too late to die." And before the of her mind and body. The day has given us to do, to find heaver not do is inaugural message, recommends that all votes at election be enclosed in self-sealing envelopes of the same appearance.

The level of Massachusetts, in his inaugural message, recommends that all thought not enough money had been captain could prevent she had drawn a small pis of and shot herself. The poor creature lived for two days, and proposed the same appearance.

The level of Massachusetts, in his thought not enough money had been captain could prevent she had drawn a small pis of and shot herself. The poor creature lived for two days, and proposed the same appearance.

The level of Massachusetts, in his thought not enough money had been captain could prevent she had drawn a small pis of and shot herself. The poor creature lived for two days, and proposed the same appearance. to advertise all the time, and he be- when she died it was in the arms of her and decorum must be observed, but choice or one in which we have been No disgrace is attached to individuality.

Probably few girls will care to be extremists in the exercise of their free-discouragement and distress. With dom, as we suspect Charlotte Cushman all her courage and decision she knew was when she says: "Climbing trees what it was to be home-sick and sad. was an absolute passion; nothing Doubt sometimes perplexed her. Her pleased me so much as to take refuge struggles before she achieved recognibut a notable exempton from untimely fairs below waxed troubled and insedeaths. The most eminent and be- cure. I was very destructive to toys again to her imitative faculty she says: my home. I reproach myself that I cised my imitative powers in all directions, and often found myself instinctively mimicking the tones, movements and expression of those about me. I'm for this miserable, frightful uncertainty, 'un enfant terrible'-in the vernacular, lead to disappointment. present, looking neither before nor after; as ready to execute as to conceive; full of imagination." She left school when only thirteen years of age, the necessities of the family obliging her to assist in her own support. Repeated failures seem to drama," and yet she sadly asked the have been the real foundation of her question: "What is or can be the rewonderful success in the profession she finally chose.

Surely, in reviewing the life of Charlotte Cushman no girl need utterly despair because of obstacles in her path; no girl need shrink from being true to herself for fear of the world's opinion. A great, grand woman, from whose example many fainting spirits will draw fresh inspiration, has proven that a girl need not be wholly conventional in her life, or even have much reverence for old-fogy notions of "woman's sphere" in order to be at once admired, esteem ed, honored and beloved. Not conformity to custom, but character is de manded of the girls of to-day.

dice against honorable callings, is to de-

NO. 2.

contains a description of her personal appearance as a girl which may be interesting to the reader:

200 miles in the south of the valley. Mrs. Abraham Lincoln. It may well when she had attained to a world-wide The agent purchased the flour not be doubted if that unfortunate woman reputation, and that social prestige straits and that its large stores in New York were closed. The attention of passers-by was attracted by a notice on the door containing the word "closed,"

The agent purchased the flour not fifty miles from the reservation at ever saw a really sane day after the bullet of Wilkes Booth had done its terrible work, and yet so closely did she hover upon the border of reason that have the same uncelled. Lake, and for this flour, which cost the hover upon the border of reason that mate. There was the same uncalcuagent not $3 a barrel to deliver the the public never made proper allowance lating, fresh, frank face; the same mergovernment paid $14 a barrel. In for her eccentrities. Now that all is ry, clear blue eye, but without the long, other words, we paid $28,000 for 2,000 over she deserves for the sake of her flowing yellow locks to cast back in barrels of flour delivered at the agency, august and beloved husband and for haste from their obtrusive sweep; the Many of the interested then repaired to the Twenty-Fourth street entrance, where they found a porter in charge, the door having a chain across it. In Washington."

Many of the interested then repaired which could have been put down there they found a porter in charge, the door having a chain across it. In Washington."

August and beloved husband and for the sorrows, no less real because imaginary, which befol her, to be tenderly enrolled among the most honored dead ing both my hands in the sincere grasp of hers while she went back over the times when, as she said we were boys together, albeit I had no such penchant for masculine masquerade as she, with the glory of her Romeo behind her, might The biographies of great women are reasonably entertain. She recalled not always encouraging. Sometimes with the greatest gusto and laughter the large attic chamber of her mother's The hopeful possibilities of girlhood house. This was before the days of are clearly illustrated in the career of popular private theatricals, and marks

> Although the tendency to do and dare was so strong in Cushman, we disposition, and that wherever she went in the world she shed courtesy helpfulness, nowhere shown more forcibly than in her efforts to aid a young friend who finally became an actress, of the police with their orgie, while of Her Life") explains the epithet by what I am. Despise labor of any kind! Another creditor said that it was the others again were sulky. Standing a saying that in those days it "was ap- I honor it, and only despise those who do not find sufficient value in it to admire. * * * * I should advise est railroad man in Missouri, has been appointed general manager of the Venice and constraint must at one face was disfigured by a bruise on the strong free nature of one who was in upon others, is, in my mind, lost time. Study while you act. Your conception of character can be formed while you read your part, and only practice can tell you whether you are right. You would, after a year of study in your own room, come out unbenefitted, save in as far as self-communion ever must make us better and stronger; but this is not what you want just now. Action is needed. Your vitality must in some way work itself off. You must suffer, Grant policy of dealing with the Indians, cided to go out of business was that tion came into my head and I obeyed courage on the part of girls to-day, You dream of it now, the intensity of they wanted the employes to enjoy the impulse." "And where have you than it did when Charlotte Cushman the life that is in you, the spirit of was young. Cutting out pieces of caliberral than a species of the association was young. Cutting out pieces of calibration and the life that is in you, the spirit of poetry which makes itself heard by was stated by an officer of the associa- the ward, under your nose. You never co and sewing them together again you in indistinct language, needs the ward, under your nose. You never to that the cause of the failure was not enough money was originally invested in the business and that too vested in the business and that too vested in the business and that too ed of the step?" "Repented!" and the more artistic employments. Piecing and prosper your undertakings. I know the control of the step?" "Repented!" and the more artistic employments. Piecing and prosper your undertakings. I know the control of the step?" "Repented!" and the more artistic employments. Piecing and prosper your undertakings. I know the control of the step?" "Repented!" and the more artistic employments. Piecing and prosper your undertakings. I know the control of the step?" "Repented!" and the more artistic employments. claims pay from the war department to the capital was the date of discharge. A Vermont regi-squanderred in the beginning for suits the wail of a lost soul. "Repented! Oh longer exacted The model and prosper your undertakings. I know the date of discharge. A Vermont regi-squanderred in the beginning for suits the wail of a lost soul." Repented! Oh longer exacted The model and prosper your undertakings. I know the date of discharge. equanderred in the beginning for suits the wail of a lost soul. "Repented! Oh, longer exacted. The model girl is know how utterly alone you will be in

> In the life of this great actress and tireless worker, there were seasons of tion in England led her once to write: How little do we estimate our good

Besides singing everything I exer- was not content with a moderate competency, while in its enjoyment, but must thrust myself out from the delight which I was permitted to enjoy,

That it did not lead to disappointment we know by her great reputation and the glowing tributes paid her in all lands even before the curtain of death dropped upon her "vanished majesty." True it is that she "trod majesty." the boards in all the queendom of the cord of an actress, however famous?" She thought that other artistspoets, painters, sculptors, musicians—produced something worthy to live after them, something which hallowed their memories and gave evidence of a divine mission. "But we." she said, "we strut and fret our hour upon the stage, and then the curtain falls and all is darkness and silence."

How much has been and will yet be said in answer to her question. She has indeed shown what the record of an actress can be.

RED CLOUD had a short interview Wednesday with Secretary Teller. He was Charlotte Cushman who, as a woman accompanied by an interperter. Conand an actress moved and melted the trary to expectation, he did not say a hearts of multitudes, also possessed a word about the affair at Pine Tree agency, but confined himself to complaining that six years ago Gov. Cook took up over