

Villa Giffioni 1865

Belloguardo.

next Villa to "Dambullin"

Darling.

I find the enclosed note from Dear Ned. which I have assumed I send down to you. in case you would like to enclose a word to Ned but it must go to night. - I am anxious to know what you have done. - whether you have found any rooms at the Torre della Valle. or where you are. I thought of running down to you with this note but I am feeling so tired & so poor
- by not going to sea. - so I think it will be safer to wait until tomorrow morning when I will come down for my bag.

I have just had the enclosed note - which tells you that there in 2 rooms at the first house you went into - Casa Molino. for which you would pay 23^{fr} francs a day - for a week for all your own food. Nurse & Furniture - Heat of room - Every thing except candles & fire. This I think would be worth considering if you have not made some advantageous arrangement with someone. I promised to let them know by 5 o'clock - if you would take them - so, if you would like to have them - just run over to the Casa Molino. & arrange for yourself.

 Let me have a word to know what you have done

I love you very dearly & cannot bear to have you down there & I up here -
 You will surely think better that I seem to have sprung another source of impatience in my dear daughter - for whom I have done so much God bless you - dear darling Give my love to baby for me & believe me ever Your loving & fond Mother You must have a 25 centesimo stamp put on Ned's letter for me -
