THE LAST OF THE BLENNERHASSETTS.

The vicissitudes of fortune is a subject of little and common remark. In every rank of life, through all the grades of human society, and changing wheels of fortune is elevating and depressing families; no prosaic eye can see an unbecoming infant, slumbering in the cradle. The insignia of wealth may be stamped upon everything which greets the infant's waking, wondering glance—tones of love may wake its young affections, and cherish them into strong and happy life: parental care may multiply its fostering influences, and centre all its smiles and attentions upon the child, and yet—

Such was the state of Eden, when the serpent entered its bowers. The prisoner (Burr), in a more engaging form, winding himself into the open and the light of day, and the beauty of his conversation and the fascinating power of his address. The question was not a difficult one. Innocence is ever simple and credulous.

SOONER HURT THAN HEALED.

Or, Hints from Hinters.

A MODERN SAINT.

SAINT PETER OF ALICANTA, as I have read in a life of St. Theresa, informed that devout lady that he had passed forty years of his life leaving only an hour and a half each day.

PERSONNEL OF PROFESSOR WILSON.

We desire to speak of Wilson with as much impartiality and freedom as though he were dead, and shall consider his personal appearance and history; his genius in its native powers and aptitudes; his achievements as a critic, humorist, writer of fiction, professor, and poet; his relation to the age; his influence on his country; and the principal defects in his genius, history and character.
