June 12th -

Knotty Cross
Gateacre near Liverpool -

My own darling -

Your dear note reached me this morning - in company with one from Ma. I am so glad you are on your way to me - & shall be so truly happy to see you again - ah - when the time comes for us to be separated tomorrow!
Will that time ever come? I pray Ed!
Darling I find by your list sent me by Ma. that you will be at Chatsworth tomorrow - would you see that place & Waddon Hall thoroughly - & tell Mr Jepson - he must arrange if possible for you to sleep at the Isaac Ballou house at Dondale - tomorrow night if he says that is impossible - you Must go to bed early to-morrow & be ready to start very early on Thursday for Dorchester - so as to be able to catch an Evening train from Ashbourne to Manchester

- or if that is impossible - get a train to Manchester via Graccisfield early on Friday morning - this will enable you to see your father's friend & pass the night at the "Queens Hotel" - & come on to Liverpool on Saturday P.M. I will send a line to the Queens Hotel for you - to tell you where I have found rooms for you for 2 or 3 nights & Sunday - & Mon-day. I will send you on your way into Wales. & I have told Dad I will try to join him the next with you - if I can afford it.
So for the two days he can be with you.
I am making you a nice little trip to Wales. the English Lakes & the Scotch Lakes so you won't have any trouble.

I am so sorry you are having such awful weather for your trip. It don't seem too hard - one night has lasted for the not? The w/pe. I'll

P.M. I'll
on the
I'm sure
& the
w/ath
light will - I about
I'm can
Every Sunday
as much
by Satur
much that not man -
& I like shall
I have but 158 for next weather in June. might we not? But perhaps this is the clearing up of snow.

P.M. I am writing the above I have been out to see my mother & the children. & the snow is the wind has gone down & the sun is shining. I only hope the weather has not interfered with your light seeing & that you may have got on well. If you sailing don't be in a hurry about getting home until Saturday night.
We can have Manchester for here almost every hour & so that you get here for the Sunday. you will do. So see Derby skin as much as your party wishes - & get home by Saturday night. I will be with you as much as I possibly can - but fear that I shall be ^{able} to slip in town now that I don't know your promise near - but other elements are discordant & I like harmony so much that I shall wait a little for my pleasure.
I have heard nothing of the photographs but much love. In love returned from Irish Duty my late do have hardly time to tell you more than that I am pretty well - am getting my eye & that I love you fondly dearly truly & shall do so while I live. That I love you as the "back for the running book". & that I am restless and anxious to see you & hear you & feel you all around me -

God bless you - dear dear love to you & every one from your fond & loving Lady
