My dear Emma

Please hand
the enclosed ck to my
J. Cashman & ask her to send me a receipt for it as from your aunt.

Ned has got to day
of sailing from Boston I think he will get off Tuesday E. M. - the children are very well, & talk a good deal of going to you - they will be missed very much. - Ned talks of going right to the New Port boat, if so he will have to take himself for his party. So you need not take tickets for him - He likes the small room very well I think - the Pickwick he will bring on for your Aunt 28yds - keep an eye

of what you expend for Saturday & let me know, I will have it or Cr. Red Safe -

Mamma & the tree
you I suppose comes every - pretty busy
at Stone Hill, out come to Bristol to
many of with you,
My love
W. Crow

My dear Emma
In sending letter recd. - this morn. I add a line to report all well - we have now bright weather
hope the easterly storm where you are which ragged all last week has passed away - To night we go to hear Dr. Lissen - my departure at uncertain perhaps Sunday
P. M. - Mr. Woodruff started to day for California to be gone a month
No news - Strawberries
Lamb abundant
New - Spring Chickens
coming in too - I believe you mother proposes to give some to Mr.
