

place in America.

Following is a paper on "French Chateau Life, Past and Present," by Anne Brewster, whose lively letters from abroad have given her an enviable reputation. Miss Brewster bases her article on what she saw and learned during a visit to the old home of Madame de Sevigné in Brittany.