

Dear Madam. I can speak to you frankly in the matter I write you. I do not think means I have named by my former branch or is assisted as to pay the interest & income. So that I am always anxious to have it so invested - while those with large means are enabled to wait the result of investments, taking things "in the long run". If, after your visit to the Quarry, you find things looking prosperous, & the investment likely to prove such as you would wish for yourself or your sister, & you find it possible to fit more of the shares from me. I shall be glad to have them - this or any other day.

I have no objection which comes in your way. I should be very thankful if you would remember me, in what you hear from your sister.

I thank you sincerely for your remembrance of my kind ones in Richmond & Boston & feel sure that you will aid me for them if you can.

I have information from Lisbon that the Duke sent them to be transported to a N. O. vessel, went, all right - & I hope in this you are in receipt of it - you will be pleased with it, I hope - all I have done in the matter. I think it in admirable taste.
