Lynn Sept 19/49

Dear Mr. Fields -

I wish you would drop down to Lynn, soon - I have two additional "imitations" one of Holmes - which I wish to show you - I'll not send them up - I hope there will be room - indeed there must be.

Ah, why could you not have been here Thursday afternoon with Whittier!

Say h - no regard to Whipple and genial-eyed Mr. Dickson No more at present -

P. S. - Perhaps after all, it were best to have the copyright articles placed before the letters, so as to be certain to have them in the volume.
What do you think?

But I must see you.

A literary friend writes me advising me not to sell my copyright, but to receive so much for a copy - as much as you will give me. In many accounts I think I shall rather do so. Pardon this little touch of business - a mysterious but something I halts as I do the

Had you not better send proof by mail - the expense is less. Anything mailed in Boston at noon, will reach me at night -
